In accordance with the federal act, all newly hired faculty, administrators, staff and students are not allowed to begin work on the first day of employment unless they complete Section I of the I-9 form. New employees have up to three business days to provide the required I-9 documentation as mandated for Section II. Sections I and II may be completed prior to the hire date when there is an unconditional offer of employment which has been accepted by the employee. New employees with a one day break in service must complete a new I-9. To facilitate completion, new employees are encouraged to provide acceptable documents before or on the first day of employment. New employees may view document options on our website <https://www.southalabama.edu/departments/financialaffairs/payroll/forms.html>

New employees who fail to provide the required documentation are not allowed to continue employment with the University of South Alabama. Non-compliance by hiring managers is a violation of the federal act and subject to federal fines and disciplinary action.

Procedure for Student Employees:

The Payroll department will handle the I-9 process for student employees as follows.

1. The hiring manager or designee is to advise the new student employee to report to the Payroll office before or on the first day of work prior to reporting to his/her work location. Student
